

YOUNG WOMAN IS STRUCK BY AUTO; NOW IN HOSPITAL

Miss Bessie Evans Suffers
Broken Collar Bone When Knocked Down by Car.

Miss Bessie Evans is in Hotel Dien, suffering from a broken collar bone and bruises, as a result of being run down by an automobile, driven by C. H. Bowles. The accident occurred about 5:15 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the corner of Campbell and Overland streets.

Bowles was taken in charge a short time after the accident by mounted policeman Benson and docked at the police station on a charge of reckless driving.

In a statement, he declared he was driving his car slowly at the time and also was backing up on his machine. He was unable to account for the accident.

Miss Evans is employed in the office of Dr. Frank Lynch. Her injuries are not believed to be serious.

MORMONS ARE NOT ENTERING MEXICO

Mormon settlers who were driven out of western Chihuahua will not return until permanent peace has been established and the Mormon church has been given assurances that the rights of their people will be protected.

O. P. Brown, business agent for the Mexican Mormon colonies is here from Salt Lake, where he has been for the past six months on business. He says that the Mormons who are located along the border may return to the colonies sooner, but the refugees who went to Salt Lake and other places in Utah will not return until peace has been established.

Mr. Brown says that many of the best settlers in the Mormon colonies will never return to Mexico, as they have rented or purchased farms in the middle west and are not planning to return to occupy their farms which were abandoned when they were driven out of Mexico by the Geronimo revolutionists.

PRISONERS HELD AT WINGATE WERE TO BE RELEASED

But When They Refused to Take Parole Pledge the Matter Was Dropped.

Release of the prisoners at Fort Wingate, N. M., was being seriously considered prior to the resignation of Gen. Huerta, Mexican federal official. They say that a letter was received by the officers at Fort Wingate from secretary of war Garrison asking the officers and men if they would be willing to take their parole, providing they agreed not to join the federal forces and would return to Mexico in territory held by the rebels. This the officers and men decided to do, the federal say, and the matter was dropped at the time. When Huerta resigned and the counter-revolution became formidable, no further consideration was given the proposal and it is now well understood that the prisoners are not to be turned loose unless some high court orders it on a writ of habeas corpus.

Salazar in Guardhouse.
Gen. Jose Yusef Salazar and Maximo Castillo are both being confined in the prison camp guardhouse, and are being guarded only by non-commissioned officers of the army. When one of the leaders of the federalists attempted to buy his way through the guard lines he was arrested and placed in the guardhouse. This man is thought to have been Salazar and with him to the guardhouse went Castillo and Rodrigo Quintero. The other officers are being allowed the liberty of the prison camp, as none have made an effort to escape since going to Fort Wingate from Fort Bliss.

Money Given Filibusterers.
Money continues to be furnished the federal filibusterers in western Chihuahua. The United States army officials have information that $25,000 Mexican currency, was sent to Roque Gomez by a leading federal sympathizer in El Paso, and that smaller donations have been made by other former land owners in that state.

HIGHLAND PARK CHORAL SOCIETY REHEARSCING

Sixth Annual Event Proves
Musical Treat; Large Audience Attends.

Notwithstanding the threatening weather Tuesday evening, the auditorium of the Highland Park Baptist church was comfortably filled with an appreciative audience for the sixth annual concert of the Highland Park Choral Society. The society did not have its usual complement of voices, owing to so many of the members being absent for the summer, but it was an enthusiastic chorus just the same.

The opening number was the fascinating "Apple Blossoms," rendered by an orchestra of seven pieces, which was followed by the lively opening chorus "Panicum-Panicum." C. J. Rogers taking the solo parts. Next came a trio for violin, cornet and piano by F. C. Holchek, R. Hopson and master Adna Barnes, which gained liberal applause.

Mrs. Anita Zavitch sang in a charming manner "When the Heart is Young" and, for the solo, the pretty ballad "In the Garden of the Heart." Mrs. Zavitch is visiting friends in El Paso. Miss Irma Vance gave a reading, "By the Grace of Jesus Christ."

Male Chorus.
The male chorus section of the organization made a favorable impression with their serenade and, for an encore, amused the little folks, and the older set with their song, "Two Lost My Docks."

The opening number of the second part of the program was "My Own United States," sung by Miss Alice Hendee with a vigor and life that made it quite plain that she meant every word she said when comparing the merits of other countries with those of Uncle Sam's globe.

C. J. Rogers, tenor, was in good voice, and an especially pleasing number of the program was the duet for tenor and soprano sung by him and Mrs. Genders. Another number, sang the old English song, "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," as also with "Mammy's Lullaby," the latter bringing in the old-time plantation gem "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot" of days gone by.

Fine Viola Solo.
One of the best numbers on the program was the violin solo "Ode to a Chanticleer," played by Frank Holchek, of the 15th cavalry band. The composer is Corp. Charles L. Lewis, likewise a member of the 15th cavalry band, who was present in the audience to hear the first public performance of his composition. He played the piano accompaniment. Two other members of the same band, R. Hopson and M. Schifano, also played in the orchestra during the evening.

As an extra number, Miss Ernestina Zavitch played a piano solo and the closing number was "Aloha Oe," sung by a quartet composed of Mrs. J. R. Burton, Mrs. L. A. Barnes, C. J. Rogers and orchestra.

The chorus numbers were all good and were liberally applauded. The company was Mrs. J. R. Burton, Walter Davis and master Adna Barnes, the bulk of the work falling upon the shoulders of the latter, who is a boy of only 13 years.

The concert was under the direction of L. A. Barnes.

DECLARES UNIONS ARE IRRESPONSIBLE

Chicago, Ill., July 22.—Alleged irresponsibility of labor unions was declared by Dudley Taylor, counsel for the Employers' association of Chicago, in testimony which he gave before the United States commission on industrial relations here today.

A Chicagoan who owns several restaurants tried the experience of a closed shop, but it would not work, related Mr. Taylor. "So he rejected it but kept precisely the same wages and hours. The union agreed to outside help, but it tried to get all employees to join the union. These restaurants have been subjected to picketing, but no attempt is made by the union to remonstrate with the employees. The picketing is to destroy patronage."

HUGE TENT MAY HOUSE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION

Committee in Charge Considering Cost of Providing Canvas Auditorium.

The democratic state convention, which meets in El Paso August 11, may be housed in a huge canvas auditorium, if present plans under consideration by the committee in charge of selecting a convention hall are carried out.

Chairman W. S. Clayton of this committee has been considering the use of the large lot at the corner of San Antonio and Kansas streets, by Charles DeGroff, president of the Sheldon Hotel company. The site, which is just east of the city hall, is ideal so far as location is concerned.

The committee is making arrangements to seat from 5000 to 6000 delegates, besides a large number of spectators, and hence the necessity for providing an adequate auditorium is obvious. There is no building in the city with a seating capacity capable of handling a gathering of this magnitude.

The cost of a canvas covering or tent large enough to cover the lot mentioned is now being ascertained by chairman Clayton.

Christiania, Norway, July 22.—Recall of Frank M. Apology from the harbor master who has reported the circumstances to the minister of foreign affairs. The harbor master also demands the punishment of Mr. McCullough, the owner of the American steam yacht Pauline.

The incident arose through defiance of the harbor master's order to change the anchorage of the Pauline, which occupied the space reserved for the German emperor's yacht, Metta. The Christiania papers say that when the official made this request in polite terms, Gunther, who was aboard, called him a "fool" and threatened to knock him down. It is said Mr. Gunther struck at the harbor master and knocked him cap off.
